DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's Amendment has been received on April 14, 2003. Claims 1-27 were cancelled from this Amendment, while new claims 28 and 29 were added. Consequently, the previous rejections noted from the Office Action dated November 7, 2003 are withdrawn.

Drawings

2. The proposed drawing correction and/or the proposed substitute sheets of drawings, filed on April 14, 2003 have been received and are acceptable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Claims 28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Hill et al. article from Business Wire titled "New Software Application for Northern Telecom's Norstar Digital Key System Allows Professionals to Use Telephone to Track Billable Time" (hereafter "Hill") in view of the April 5, 1999 article titled "Journyx and IBM Team to Deliver Enterprise Project and Time Tracking Software" (hereafter "Journyx").

Hill discloses a method of recording activity performed by a user on behalf of a client comprising an initiation by a user a client session having an identifier and client matter identifier where start and stop times are recorded for billing purposes. It is noted "Reports on collected data can be provided as needed" for Hill, client or customer files may be stored and used with various computers, e.g. page 2 of 3, lines 14-17. Hill does not explicitly disclose use of the Internet. Journyx discloses a method time tracking system for client/user arrangements using the Internet.

To have provided an Internet activity reporting for Hill would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in view of Journyx. Doing such would implement well-known telecommunication technology that computers were designed to interact with.

Regarding claim 29, the particular Internet activities requested are deemed design choices as each of the particular type of data requested, e.g. a search term, are common knowledge and notoriously well known within the computer industry. Official Notice is taken of such. To have requested such is not deemed novel.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

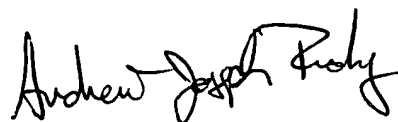

Art Unit: 3627

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
